New York, November 16. THE STORM OF ANGER WHICH IS SWEEPING THROUGH the United States over the recent persecution of Jews shows no sign of abatement. There was a big demonstration at the wharf when the German liner Bremen sailed for Europe yesterday. The demonstrators marched down the waterfront and police reinforcements had to be called out to control the situation.

Every precaution was taken to ensure the liner's safe sailing. The New York Police Commissioner states that the State Department has requested him to see that German ships and the German Consulate in New York are protected. —Reuter.

ARAB STRIKE CONTINUES

Food Prices Rise In Palestine

Jerusalem, Nov. 16.

The Arab traffic strike continues, since the Arabs refuse to accept identity cards issued by the authorities for the drivers of all vehicles.

BULLET STRIKES WATER

Consul's Wife Has Narrow Escape

TIENTSIN CRIMES

Tientsin, Nov. 16.

When passing the bridge bordering the Race Club grounds in Chinese territory this morning, Mrs. J. K. Caldwell, wife of the United States Consul-General here, narrowly escaped being hit by a bullet apparently fired by someone hidden in the tall reeds nearby.

She was alone and heard a shot and saw a bullet strike the water. An unprecedented series of attacks alleged to have been made by bandits have occurred here since the order was issued by the authorities forbidding Chinese and Japanese to attend races.

The outrages include the murder of a Russian dairy proprietor, the hold-up of a prominent Belgian family at their residence and maltreatment and robbing of a hospital matron. All the attacks occurred in the racecourse area the insecurity of which is being drawn to the attention of the consular body. —Reuter.

Chungking, Nov. 16.

Despite an eye-sore which he had contracted during his motor trip from Kwaiyang, Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, British Ambassador to China, who arrived here from the Kweichow capital yesterday, called on a number of high Government officials to-day.

At ten o'clock, the British envoy, accompanied by his Secretary, called on Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan and Minister of Finance. Sir Archibald was closeted with Dr. Kung for about an hour before taking his departure.

Shortly after the call on the Executive Yuan, the British Ambassador visited the Generalissimo's Provisional Headquarters here and had a talk with General Chiang Chun, Director of the Headquarters.

In the afternoon, Sir Archibald resumed his round of calls and had an interview with Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Minister of Foreign Affairs, at the Foreign Office. He also called on Mr. Hsu Mo, Political Vice-Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Sir Archibald's stay in Chungking is understood, will be short, and he will return to Shanghai in four or five days. —Central News.

GOOD RESPONSE TO APPEAL

Emergency Work For Refugees

Good response to the Emergency Refugee Council's appeal for material contributions to carry on the work at Kam Tin Camp is reported.

Many useful articles have been received during the last few days, amongst which may be mentioned over 200 pairs of shoes and cloths and a radio receiving set.

There are at present over 3,000 refugees at the camp. The number varies from time to time; approximately a fortnight ago it was reduced to just over 500.

CONDITIONS IMPROVED

It can well be said, according to Mrs. J. Whyatt, Secretary of the Council, that conditions now in camp has improved over 100 per cent compared with the last month. The refugees themselves are beginning to volunteer their free time to maintain their own welfare.

It is also reported that accommodation at the Kam Tin Camp is becoming rapidly exhausted and people are coming in several hundreds every day. When the need arises additional accommodation will have to be provided.

Gifts of warm clothing and quilts will be greatly appreciated.

THOROUGH BOYCOTT OF JAPANESE GOODS

"BLACKOUT" EXERCISES IN COLONY NEXT WEEK

Objects Fully Explained: Directions To Public

"PRECAUTIONARY PERIOD" TO BE FOLLOWED BY WARNING

IT HAS BEEN DECIDED BY GOVERNMENT that during the forthcoming combined manoeuvres (10 p.m. on November 21 to the morning of November 23) to hold a series of "blackout" exercises in the Colony and to exercise certain Air Raid Precaution services.

THE FIRST "BLACKOUT" EXERCISE will commence at 9.15 p.m. on November 21 and end at 11.15 p.m. the same night.

THE SECOND "BLACKOUT" EXERCISE will consist of two parts. The total duration of the whole of this exercise will be approximately one hour and will commence at any time during the dark hours between November 22 and 23.

For the purpose of these exercises there will be a "precautionary period" commencing at 10 p.m. on the night of November 21 and ending at midnight on November 23; this period will be followed immediately by an air raid warning period which may last until the night of November 27.

The objects of these exercises are to ascertain the degree of darkness which can be obtained; the speed with which all lights in the Colony can either be extinguished or obscured.

To exercise certain A.R.P. services under restricted lighting conditions; and

To obtain observation reports from aircraft on the efficiency of the Colony's darkening arrangements.

NO ALARM SOUNDED

On November 24 no air raid alarm will be sounded for this exercise, and the exercise will automatically commence at 9.15 p.m. The exercise will terminate at 11.15 p.m.

Action to be taken by Heads of Departments and by the general public is as follows:—

Extinguish all illuminated advertisements and signs.

Extinguish or obscure all domestic lighting, so that no light is visible external to the building. Extinguish all street lighting. Blinds of railway carriages to be lowered.

Shipping in or entering the harbour to darken ship. Extinguish headlights and internal lights of all motor vehicles and other types of transport, including rickshaws and bicycles. Dim the side and rear lights of all vehicular traffic with two thicknesses of dark blue cloth.

Railway Station signal lights and navigation lights, both shipping and aircraft, must remain alight.

In the interval between No. 1 and No. 2 exercises lighting restrictions will not be enforced, but it would be unwise for the community to relax their lighting restrictions to any great extent as it must be remembered that they will be called upon to again restrict their lighting for exercise No. 2.

Exercise No. 2 will consist of two phases. The first phase, date and time, will not be made public. The period of the first phase will be thirty minutes.

SWEET DISHES MADE WITH APPLES

Favourite Dumplings

One naturally thinks of dumplings in connection with apples. Ingredients: 6 large cooking apples, sugar, 1lb. short pastry, 6 cloves.

Roll out the pastry and cut into rounds large enough to cover the apple completely. Peel and core the apples, first place a clove in the cavity, then fill with sugar. Shape the pastry over, putting the folded side on the solid shell. Bake the dumplings for 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

When nearly done, brush lightly over with water, sprinkle with moist sugar and finish baking.

Family Pudding

Where there's a family, one large pudding is preferred.

Ingredients: 12oz. flour, 6oz. shredded suet, 1 teasp. baking powder, 4 tabspcs sugar, 6 cloves.

Peel, core and slice 2lb. apples. Make the crust with the flour, shredded suet, baking powder and water to mix. Cut off a small piece for the top, and roll out the remainder.

Line a well-greased basin with the crust, put in half the fruit, the sugar and cloves, cover with the remaining fruit, and add 2 tabspcs. of cold water.

Roll out the rest of the crust to fit the top of the basin, moisten the edge and place carefully to the edge of the pastry lining the basin.

Cover with a well-floured cloth, tie down and boil gently for 3 hours.

Served With Rice

A nourishing dish for growing children, and they'll like it!

Ingredients: 4 apples, 1 pint milk, 2 tabspcs. rice, 2 tabspcs. sugar, 1oz. butter, bay leaf or lemon rind, a pinch of salt, raspberry jam.

Put the washed rice into a pan with the salt, lemon rind and milk. Simmer until the greater part of the milk is absorbed and the rice is tender, then stir in the butter and sugar, and remove the lemon rind.

Peel and core the apples, and grease a pie-dish, then spread this with raspberry jam. Fill with apples and rice alternately, and bake in a slow oven, mark 2, until apples are tender, but unbroken.

Baked With Cloves

Served with cream or custard, baked apples are delicious. Wipe sufficient large apples with a damp cloth, remove the cores, and fill the cavity with Demerara sugar, including a clove.

Put the apples into a baking tin with a little cold water, and bake slowly until tender. Sprinkle with caster sugar and serve.

Popular Charlotte

Apple Charlotte is a popular sweet.

Ingredients: 2lb. apples, 5oz. sugar, stale white bread, 2 tabspcs. water, butter.

Peel, core and slice the apples and line a buttered pie-dish with slices of bread and butter. Fill with alternate layers of apples, sugar and bread, moistening with the water and finishing with bread.

Cover with greased paper, and bake for 40 minutes in a moderate oven, mark 4.

Turn out and sprinkle with sugar.

Fruit Snow

A sweet to tempt your guests.

Ingredients: 5 sour cooking apples, 4oz. sugar, 2 eggs, grated rind of half a lemon, few drops of vanilla essence, 1 pint milk, 1 tabspcs. cream.

Pare, core, and slice the apples, put them into a pan with the lemon rind, 2oz. sugar and a little water. Cook until tender, rub through a fine sieve, leave to cool, then stir in the cream.

Warm the milk, add sugar to taste, remove from heat and stir in the flavoured and the well-beaten yolks of eggs. Cook over a gentle heat until the mixture thickens, stirring meanwhile to prevent burning.

Put the apple purée into a buttered pie-dish, pour the custard over the top and cover with the stiffly-whisked whites of eggs. Dredge liberally with caster sugar, and bake in a slow to moderate oven, mark 3, until the surface sets and is lightly coloured.

Mixed Fruit

Apples combine with prunes to make this fruity dish, served with cream or custard.

Ingredients: 1½lb. apples, ½lb. prunes, strip of lemon rind, sugar to taste.

Wash ½lb. prunes and soak in cold water for 12 hours, place them in a small casserole or pie-dish with sugar to taste.

Add a strip of lemon rind and cold water to cover the fruit, and cook in a slow oven, mark 2, until soft.

Pare, core and slice the apples, cook gently in a little water until soft, add sugar to taste and a teaspoonful of lemon juice, mash, then add to the prunes and mix well.

Apple Tart

Another family favourite.

Ingredients: ½lb. short crust, 2lb. apples, sugar to sweeten, water.

Peel, core and slice the apples, place in a pie-dish, sprinkle liberally with sugar, and add a little water.

If you like flavour of cloves, add two or three to the apples, or you may find a pinch of cinnamon a change in flavour.

Roll out the pastry to a size a little larger than the pie-dish. Trim off a strip ¼ inch wide and place this on the greased flat edge of the dish.

Damp the edge of this pastry, then cover with the remainder, being careful not to stretch it or the pastry will shrink away from the sides of the dish. Trim and press the edge of the pie all round with a fork.

Stand the tart on a tin, and bake for 50 minutes in a fairly quick oven, mark 6.

If liked, the apples may be partly stewed first, in which case the tart will not require so long to bake.

Popular Charlotte

Apple charlotte is a popular sweet.

Ingredients: 2lb. apples, 5oz. sugar, stale white bread, 2 tablesps. water, butter.

Peel, core and slice the apples and line a buttered pie-dish with slices of bread and butter. Fill with alternate layers of apples, sugar and bread, moistening with the water and finishing with bread.

Cover with greased paper, and bake for 40 minutes in a moderate oven, mark 4.

Turn out and sprinkle with sugar.

Fruit Snow

A sweet to tempt your guests.

Ingredients: 5 sour cooking apples, 4oz. sugar, 2 eggs, grated rind of half a lemon, few drops of vanilla essence, 1 pint milk, 1 tablesp. cream.

Pare, core, and slice the apples, put them into a pan with the lemon rind, 2oz. sugar and a little water. Cook until tender, rub through a fine sieve, leave to cool, then stir in the cream.

Warm the milk, add sugar to taste, remove from heat and stir in the flavoured and the well-beaten yolks of eggs. Cook over a gentle heat until the mixture thickens, stirring meanwhile to prevent burning.

Put the apple puree into a buttered pie-dish, pour the custard over the top and cover with the stiffly-whisked whites of eggs. Dredge liberally with caster sugar, and bake in a slow to moderate oven, mark 3, until the surface sets and is lightly coloured.

Mixed Fruit

Apples combine with prunes to make this fruit dish, served with cream or custard.

Ingredients: 14lb. apples, 1lb. prunes, strip of lemon rind, sugar to taste.

Wash 1lb. prunes and soak in cold water for 12 hours, place them in a small casserole or pie-dish with sugar to taste.

Add a strip of lemon rind and cold water to cover the fruit, and cook in a slow oven, mark 2, until soft.

Pare, core and slice the apples, cook gently in a little water until soft, add sugar to taste and a teaspoonful of lemon juice, mash, then add to the prunes and mix well.

Apple Tart

Another family favourite.

Ingredients: 1lb. short crust, 2lb. apples, sugar to sweeten, water.

Peel, core and slice the apples, place in a pie-dish, sprinkle liberally with sugar, and add a little water.

If you like flavour of cloves, add two or three to the apples, or you may find a pinch of cinnamon a change in flavour.

Roll out the pastry to a size a little larger than the pie-dish. Trim off a strip 1/4 inch wide and place this on the greased fat edge of the dish.

Damp the edge of this pastry, then cover with the remainder, being careful not to stretch it or the pastry will shrink away from the sides of the dish. Trim and press the edge of the pie all round with a fork.

Stand the tart on a tin, and bake for 50 minutes in a fairly quick oven, mark 5.

If liked, the apples may be partly stewed first, in which case the tart will not require so long to bake.

"Since taking Kalzana my headaches vanished"

My NERVES are much STEADIER than they were before" writes Mr. N. L. Cape Town, S.A.

Kalzana is a remarkable food containing no drugs whatsoever. In hot countries one's diet and the extent to which one perspires tend to decrease the mineral contents of the body. Many complaints such as irritability, high blood pressure, dizziness, acidity, which are so often ascribed to "the climate" are due largely to this loss of minerals.

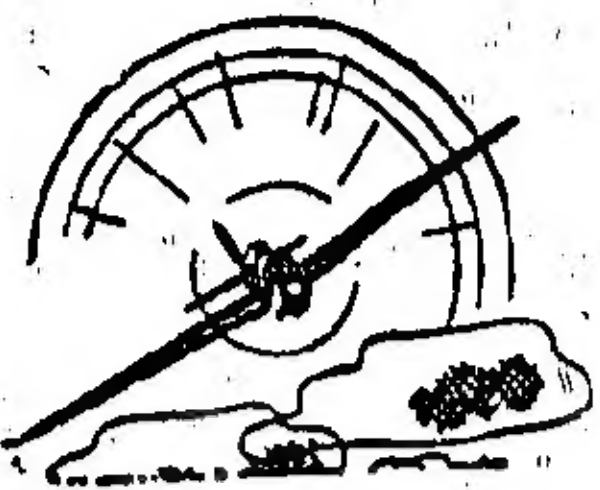

When you do not feel as well as you should, start taking Kalzana tablets. They will soon put you right.

Obtainable at all Chemists in tablet and powder form.

Kalzana Tablets are sold in bottles of 75 and 60. Kalzana is the most economical of all calcium preparations.

Chinese Soldier's Request Before Death

BLOWS MARCH ON HIS BUGLE IN PRESENCE OF JAPANESE

How a Chinese bugler, a youth of 23, refused to surrender when captured, and how his unflinching courage and loyalty to his country aroused the admiration of the Japanese and was granted a last wish before he was put to death was related by Hirohara Hamamoto, a well-known Japanese writer, in a recent issue of the "Osaka Mainichi," according to "Central News."

Hamamoto was one of the Japanese authors of note who were recently invited by the Japanese General Staff to pay a visit to the Yangtze front during the Japanese drive up the river to Hankow.

VOLUNTARY AID

Those who wish to join the A. R. P. Auxiliary Unit are reminded to attend the voluntary aid lectures held each Friday at 8.45 p.m. at St. John Ambulance Head-

It was September 29, and the scene a small street corner of the battered town of Wusueh. The actors were the bugler and a group of Japanese Marines. Hamamoto related how he followed his troops in entering Wusueh and saw from a distance a number of Japanese blue-jackets surrounding a Chinese captive.

"KILL ME"
With his arms akimbo and his bugle hung jauntily across his shoulder, he was saying, "Kill me if you like." At the last moment, he made a request, "I am a bugler, and before I die, I should wish to blow my bugle once again."

"Good, you play the Chinese national anthem on your bugle," said one of the Japanese, visibly moved.

With his eyes twinkling, the bugler said, "I am twenty-three, and I have been a bugler for only three months. I am as yet unacquainted with the more difficult pieces. I shall do a march on my bugle."

And then, with a stoical smile on his face, the Chinese soldier began to blow a march in the most martial air.

The sound of the bugle, confessed the narrator, shall remain ever clear in his memory, and his immediate thought was: "China, too, has her great men."

GRACE MOORE ROMANZA

"The Take Romance," Grace Moore's new musical now showing at the Majestic Theatre, is a rollicking story in a humorous vein. A delightful tongue-in-cheek tale, it tells of an opera singer, completely dominated by a voracious aunt, who plans to break a contract to sing in Buenos Aires in order to accept one to appear in Paris. Jim Guthrie, a transplanted American, comes from the Argentine with his henchman, Senor Pancho Brownelles (born in Brooklyn), and things begin to happen. Melvyn Douglas plays Guthrie and, as usual, proves himself the master of light comedy. Stuart Erwin, Helen Westley, Margaret Hamilton, Richard C. Lee, Esther Muir, Ferdinand Gottschalk and Walter Kingsley are also in the cast.

What The Stars Are Doing

Greta Garbo will soon return to Hollywood in order to start work on two new pictures. The first of these will be "Ninotchka," by Mel-chlor Lengyel. The second will be an adaptation of the popular biography, "Madame Curie." Aldous Huxley, English novelist, is working on the screen play.

Mervyn LeRoy will produce "Stand Up and Fight" with Robert Taylor and Wallace Beery co-starring. This is an adaptation of the novel by Forbes Parkhill.

Joan Crawford will star in "The Shining Hour," based on Keith Winter's London and New York stage success of the same name.

Marking the fifth appearance together of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, "Sweethearts" has gone into production at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios under the direction of W.S. Van Dyke II. The picture is being made entirely in Technicolor.

Walt Disney's brother, Roy, returned to America recently with rights to film "Alice in Wonderland" and to reproduce the familiar Tenniel illustrations.

BETTY GRABLE SEEN AGAIN

Betty Grable, lovely screen beauty, will be seen in one of her biggest and most important roles to date at the Queen's Theatre to-day in Paramount's gay comedy of college life, "Campus Confessions." Featured with Miss Grable in the cast are beautiful Eleanor Whitney, Hank Lulseth, Stanford University Basketball star who makes his film debut in this film, William Henry, Thurston Hall and Fritz Feld, the popular comedian. "Campus Confessions" tells the story of a young college boy who runs into the almost insurmountable obstacle of his father's wealth in his attempts to achieve popularity with his fellow-students.

M-G-M are planning to make a film of Dickens's "Christmas Carol" for the Christmas holidays. Lionel Barrymore is tentatively cast as Scrooge.

Minnie Dupree, sixty-three-year-old stage actress, gets the part in "The Young in Heart" for which Maude Adams and Dorothy Gish were tested. Dorothy Gish couldn't look eighty-three, as the part of Miss Fortune requires.

Albert Lewin, of Paramount, is still trying to find a story to tempt Yehudi Menuhin, the violinist, on to the screen, although Menuhin denied he would ever consider such a thing.

Sonja Henie has quickly settled her squabble with her studio. She will return as soon as her exhibition tour is over.

Ariane Berg, on whose grooming M-G-M are said to have spent $10,000 goes on loan to Twentieth Century-Fox for a part in the next Jones Family story, "Trip to Paris."

Lupe Velez is replacing Tallulah Bankhead in a Broadway musical with Clifton Webb. Francis Lederer and his wife, Margo, are also leaving Hollywood to appear on Broadway in "Balalaika."

M-G-M have bought William Faulkner's new novel "The Unvanquished," another Civil War story. Faulkner's "Sanctuary" was filmed but drew down the wrath of the women's clubs.

Anna May Wong goes to Warners to play the astrologist in "When Were You Born?" Story is written by the president of the Philosophical Research Society, and shows Anna solving a mystery by horoscopes.

Deanna Durbin will be challenging Grace Moore before she's seventeen. Her screen mentors, producer Pasternak and director Koster, are preparing a story about the early life of Jenny Lind, the "Swedish Nightingale."

David Seiznick is still looking for a suitable Scarlett for "Gone With the Wind" which must start between November 15 and December 31, by contract with M-G-M, who are providing Clark Gable.

Warners have brought Eddie Albert from Broadway to play his original leading part in "Brother Rat." Olivia de Havilland plays opposite him, with Wayne Morris and Priscilla Lane as the second pair.

Columbia have bought "The Duchess of Broadway" as Jean Arthur's next picture. Sam Goldwyn originally planned it for Carole Lombard or Claudette Colbert.

CZECH FUND RING RETURNED

Donor's Name Secret

An English-born Jew from the East End of London who gave his dead wife's wedding ring to the Lord Mayor's Czech Refugee Fund a few weeks ago has been found through advertisements. He called at the Mansion House recently, when the ring was returned to him.

The man, who is a tailor, declined to disclose his name or to accept a substantial cash gratuity which the Lord Mayor, Sir Harry Twyford, offered to him. He would only accept an autographed photograph of the Lord Mayor.

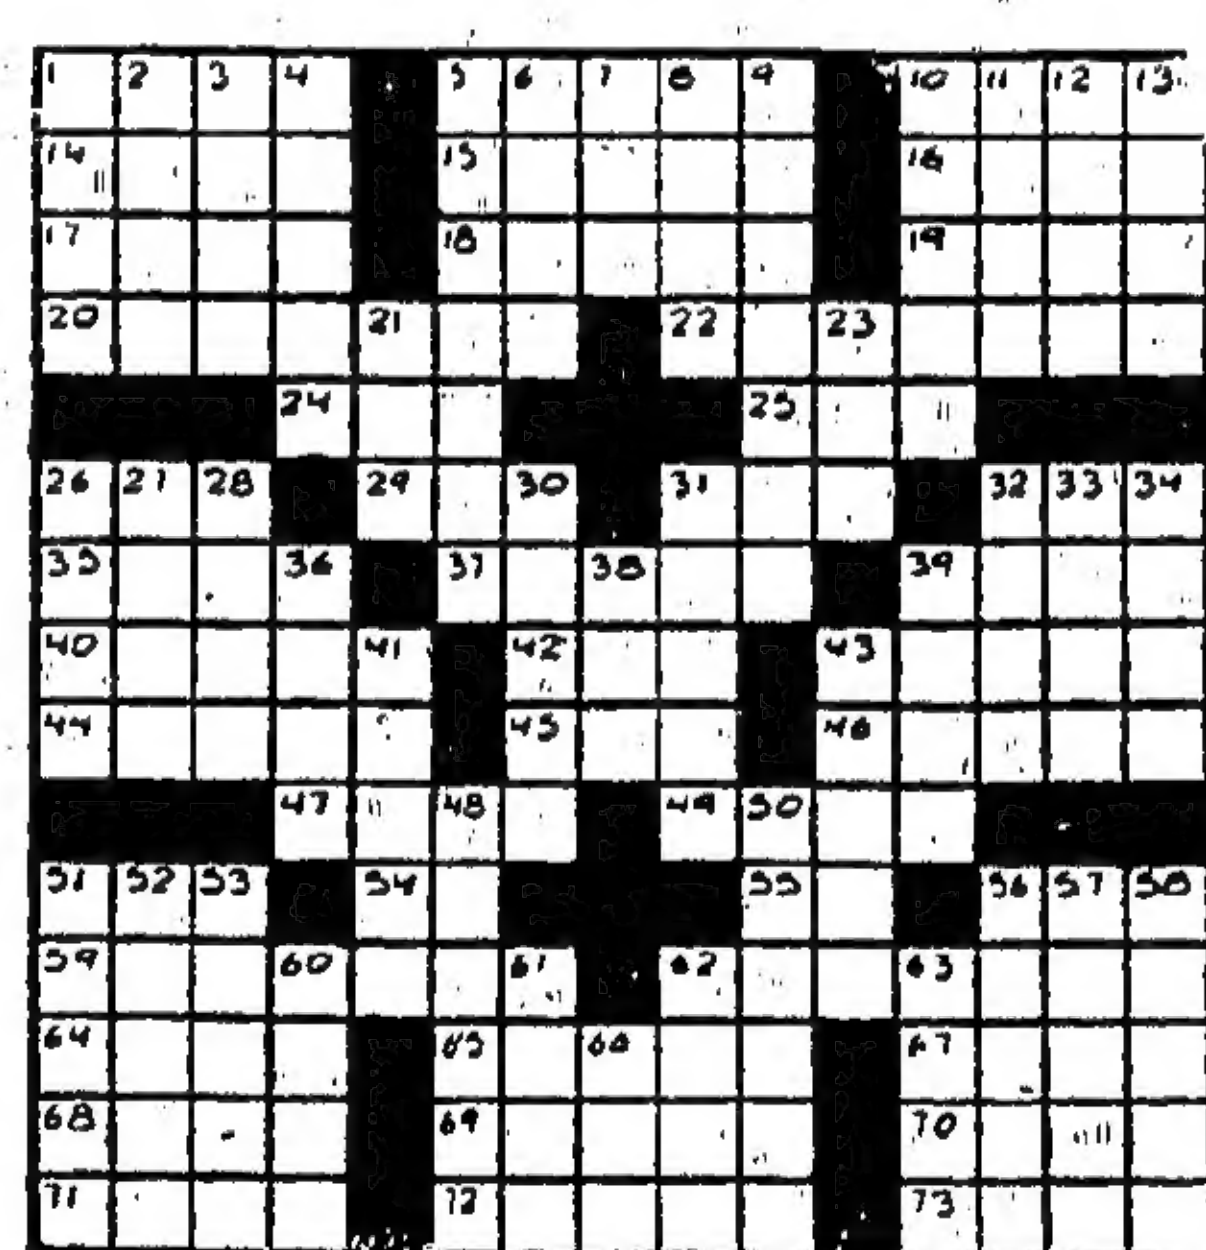

The gift of the ring was revealed by the Lord Mayor at a dinner in London on Oct. 13. Sir Harry said the man's action became known to M. Spitzer, a Paris banker, who had bought the ring for £250. This sum was handed to the Fund.

PHILIPPINE CLIPPER IS DUE NOV. 23

Three Interesting Passengers

The Pan American Airways' Philippine Clipper is due to arrive in Hongkong on November 23.

Advance reports state that three of the passengers are of outstanding interest in world events.

They will join Mr. Richard Halliburton to the Colony as Mr. John Pether and Mr. Robert Chase. These young Americans intended to travel on a steamer, but due to a vacation delay in the interesting islands, they found it necessary to continue via the Clipper to reach Hongkong on schedule.

They will join Mr. Richard Halliburton as members of the crew, to sail the Pacific Ocean on his proposed junk voyage.

There is quite a bit of adventure in the trip of these young men flying to the Colony in five days and then sail back to San Francisco, taking at least three months on the return voyage.

The remainder of Mr. Halliburton's crew are now in Hongkong supervising the construction of the junk and making arrangements for sailing, which date has not yet been fixed.

It is intended by the well-known author to sail his junk to the San Francisco Fair which will open in February. There he will turn over his little vessel to the Exposition to be placed in the grounds for display.

BOTANIST ARRIVING

The other passenger of note arriving on the Philippine Clipper is Dr. J. Rock, a very well-known botanist in this part of the world.

Dr. Rock left six weeks ago via Pan American Airways for Honolulu under commissions for the Yunnan Government. He has been connected at various times with the National Geographic Society, Harvard University, in the United States, and the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association. At the present time his work, "Historical Geography of Western China and Tibet" is being published in China.

Hawaii is the doctor's native land and he is responsible for a great deal of the floral research work carried on in the Islands. For the past 17 years China has been this interesting student's home.

Pan American Airways' Clippers bring and take from the Colony many outstanding people of note throughout the year.

ART EXHIBITION

The Hongkong Working Artists' Guild will present an exhibition of Chinese paintings by Miss Ling Po-kuen to-morrow at St. John's Cathedral Hall, which will be continued until Monday, November 21.

There will be 100 paintings, 20 of which are for sale for the benefit of China war relief.

Round About

Two middle-aged ladies sat in the dining room of a well-known restaurant. Quietly they conversed and sipped from tall glasses a pinkish fluid. The dining room captain approached their table. After much inspection of the bill of fare, they selected their meal and again resumed their conversation.

Their orders arrive at the table. The ladies commence to enjoy their food, now and then nodding to a passing acquaintance and talking among themselves.

The meal progresses and they are about to partake of a dessert. One of the women had evidently ordered a piece of pie and coffee. 'Is it set before her. She tastes the sweet, glances at the piece in her plate and speaks to her companion. However, she continues to eat the pie completely.

At the end of the meal the lady pays her bill and in a loud voice informs the captain that the pie was very inferior and that she did not care for it.

The captain, with a smile, looks at her empty plate and replies: "I am glad you ate the pie, madam, and I shall inform the cook of what you have to say!"

LOCAL CHURCH CONDEMNS POGROM

Special Prayers Offered

Prayers are being offered in all English churches in Hong Kong, as well as in Churches of other denominations, in connection with the persecution of the Jews in Germany and Austria, and statements condemning the pogrom were made by the Vicar Apostolic, the Rt. Rev. H. Valto, and the Rev. H. D. Rosenthal, Acting Vicar of St. Andrew's Church.

Mons. Valto said: "It is a terrible thing, and one that must outrage public opinion throughout the world. The murder of Herr von Rath was a crime that will be condemned by the world, but the subsequent events in Germany are a crime against civilization. All Catholics condemn this sort of thing."

Mr. Rosenthal said: "The Jewish pogrom in Germany is a barbarism which will shock the conscience of Christian people throughout the world. Christians will pray earnestly for the Jewish and the German people—for the Jews that they may find peace and for the Germans that they may be restored to sanity and tolerance."

FUNDS SOUGHT

Meanwhile, the Jewish Committee in Hong Kong is calling a meeting to consider ways and means of raising funds for their unfortunate compatriots.

It is revealed that about ten families of Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria have been permitted to land in Hong Kong. Only one or two of these families have been able to find employment.

Almost a thousand Jewish refugees from Germany and Austria have passed through Hong Kong recently, most of them en route to Shanghai, where they are being permitted to land.

Only a limited number have been allowed to land in Hong Kong, and they must be in possession of sufficient funds to ensure that they will not become a burden on the Colony's finances.

About thirty refugees passed through here on Saturday by the steamer Victoria. They were met by leading members of the Jewish community in Hong Kong.

fortifications of Cameroon bases by the Germans may really prove fatal to the alternative route to India. It is true there is not very much else in Cameroon to compensate Belgium for the loss of the Congo.

Lisbon sources state categorically that Mr. C. Pirow, the South African statesman, after his visit to Salamanca, "is back."

MR. PIROW'S study, modern "STUDY" war, has arrived with a further scheme and it is stated that the colonial claims of the axis powers were discussed between South Africa, Portugal, Germany and Italy.

It is understood that the Germans made it quite clear that they regard their claim in Spanish Morocco in the event of the axis powers winning the Spanish war as being at least as absolute as Mussolini's demand for the Balearics.

There is no guarantee whatever that Germany will for long accept any of these schemes for although there are those who optimistically suppose that the demands for "all the colonies" being voiced from Berlin are nothing more than part of the technique of pressure, the best-informed observers in Berlin now consider that the German Government is by now sufficiently confident of its own armed strength, of the strength of its financial allies in London, and of the strength of the forces at work to prevent the British from summing their only visible potential saviours to their aid, to push its claims quickly, determinedly and completely.

The situation is an interesting one and one well worth watching. Meanwhile, what is going to happen so far as the League of Nations mandates (of former German territory) of Africa are concerned?

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A.W. HYER—

Maybe the travel ships have been boycotting Hong Kong or maybe they think our perfectly grand weather is too cold for them, but very few of these commercial transports have called by in the past couple of days. Just wait though, another couple of weeks and they will be stampeding in here to visit our winter Riviera.

That Empress of Asia which should be berthed in Kowloon at Pier One now, will not be in until Friday morning. The Shanghai tide did not wait for her, thus causing the delay.

THIS IS A FINE little vessel and the full load she carried when she sailed on Tuesday at 10.30 a.m. was very gay and jolly about their journey to the South.

There were two couples of "honeymooners" aboard, all full of smiles, yet sorry to be saying adieu to Hong Kong and good friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Connor, of the Asiatic Petroleum Company, were the first couple, being married last week. They are headed for new duties in their Company's office in Manila. Best of luck!

And the second couple whose destination is Manila and of the Asiatic Petroleum Company office, were Mr. and Mrs. G. J. H. Lander. Good wishes to you, too!

Knocking on more cabin doors, we discovered Miss Florence Tyler and Miss G. Schultz, of New York City, and they were surrounded by flowers and friends.

These interesting ladies are on their way to Macassar to attend the International Mission Conference. Leaving their duties in the Foreign Mission Conference Offices (which Miss Tyler declares is a clean house for all missions) in New York, they crossed the Pacific and travelled overland through the Northern and Southern sections of China, inspecting and investigating mission activities. After a ten-day visit here, they continue on their extremely interesting journey.

It will be next March before these ladies sight their home shores and the Statue of Liberty.

Mrs. E. G. Bauer likes our visit of several days was not longer. Attached to the U.S.S. marmarad and now in Manila waters, demanded her complete attention: so South she sailed on this comfortable Dutch steamer.

Then—bump! And we find two very, very business-like, business men. Mr. J. C. Walker, quite a world traveller heading for his office in Singapore after visiting here for several weeks.

The other is Mr. A. Plaza sailing to Sourabaya. Now, he did not speak our Oxford dictionary English, therefore we tried out our five-year-old French.

This is the first call in the Orient for the representative of Elnas et Woffman du Tonkin, who has been inspecting offices in the North. Hong Kong is fine, he believes, after his visit and expressed the hope to call here again. Marseilles is the gentleman's ultimate destination.

Just as we were about to tackle Mr. and Mrs. G. H. L. Hobson, and inquire, where to, how long, etc., the Tynesara's whistle vibrated through the ship, and the launch came back with a toot: so down

SILK SHOWER

Air-raid sirens recently shrieked in the Rebel capital of Burgos as a squadron of Loyalist planes swooped overhead. While Franco's subjects took shelter, the bombers dropped twenty tons of silk stockings and underwear into the streets.

It was the Government's bright answer to the "Manna Rains" in which Rebel bombers had dropped bread to show the starving enemy that Insurgent Spain had plenty of food. Holding Industrial Catalonia, the Loyalists proved they had an ample supply of textiles.

Franco's air force went back to bomb. As usual, German, Italian and Spanish squadrons flew as separate units, never mixing.

Even more anxiously concealed from the spying eyes of their allies than the enemy, were the new German anti-aircraft guns. No Spaniard or Italian was allowed to venture into the fenced enclosures which were guarded by German sentries.

From their hiding places on the Ebro front, the batteries of new guns laid down a barrage of several thousand shells a minute, causing Italian officers next door to gasp with envy and admiration.

COMMERCIAL AIR TRAVEL

Further Advance Next Year

JAPAN TO EXTEND SERVICES

Commercial air transportation in the Orient will advance another step in the beginning of 1939. The Japanese Government is reported to be extending their air line services from Formosa to Canton, China.

Four large DC-3, Douglas transport aircraft, have been loaded onto Japanese freighters in the port of Los Angeles, California, and delivered to Yokohama, Japan.

These large ships, which will be put into service on the new air route, were shipped complete with motors and all spare parts necessary for the control and navigation of the planes. They are being completely fitted and made ready for the new service in Japan.

Canton to Hong Kong will be the next extension of this branch of the Japanese air line. It is reported that permission has been filed with the British Government in this regard. However, no definite statement is forthcoming at the present time from the British authorities in the Colony regarding the request.

Negotiations must take place before such a permission is granted, and they would include reciprocal rights for the Imperial Airways, Ltd., for an air route into Shanghai or any Japanese controlled territory.

2 DEFENDANTS DISCHARGED

Abduction Case Falls

A charge of abduction of a 15-year-old girl brought against Chiu Cheung, 37, an unemployed male, and against Lam Tret, 27, his wife, and another woman, Chan Ho, alias Pat Kwu, 37, by the parents of the girl failed when the Magistrate, Mr. Q. A. A. MacIndevy, at the Kowloon Court yesterday, ordered the discharge of two of the defendants, remarking that he had not heard evidence strong enough to convince him that the girl's story of her being sold across the border to a family in Tam Tung Wei was true.

The text of the girl's Ng Yau-mui's story included her going, last April, to the home of a woman named Lam Tsai, from whom her mother had instructed her to collect a debt of five dollars, her detention for three days in the house in Portland Street, her journey to Tam Tung Wei, in Chinese territory, with a woman named Ng Ma Tsai, and her eventually being sold there into a family for $175.

Air raids had forced her master and his family to evacuate Tam Tung Wei. Being given two dollars by her master and left to take care of herself, she had walked home, via Tai-po, to Kowloon. The police had then been informed of her "abduction."

Det. Sub-Ins. C. Mottram, on Monday, in outlining the case for the prosecution, remarked on the curious behaviour of the girl's parents, who had not missed her since the day in April when she was abducted.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. S. Billings were the centre of a gay party. These nice people are headed for London and a travelling vacation through Europe.

Though we did not have a look-see, Captain and Mrs. F. E. Whiting were Singapore-bound, said the Purser.

Maybe it is a good idea to go on a holiday during the wearing and tearing days of the Christmas and New Year season. We hope all of you have perfectly happy days to come.

JAPANESE FLAGSHIP COMING HERE

H. I. J. M. Ship Myoko, flying the flag of Vice-Admiral Shiozawa, will arrive at Hong Kong about 9 a.m. this morning. Calls will be exchanged between the British and Japanese Naval Commander-in-Chief and the Myoko will leave Hong Kong later in the day.

This is the first visit of a Japanese warship to Hong Kong since the beginning of the present hostilities.

FALSE PRETENCES

Leung Chi-woon, 28, was sentenced by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Court yesterday to six months' hard labour for the offence of obtaining one dollar by false pretences. Leung, who had several previous convictions on similar charges, fell foul of the police again when he attempted to victimize Mr. C. E. Abwee, manager of the Customs Pass branch of the Dairy Farm.

MR. ANTHONY EDEN'S POINT OF VIEW

(SPECIAL TO THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS")

The youth of the world which grew to manhood after the last World War includes many men of different countries called to the war in its final stages. Mr. Anthony Eden is one of those men. He is one of those who actually experienced the horrors of warfare and has an understanding of warfare which is as real as that possessed by Hitler, the German Chancellor. And if the one, a German, plays with the danger of war as a weapon of international politics, the other, an English gentleman, regards war as the final arbiter of national policy and a weapon to be used only in the last extremity.

Mr. Eden was committed to a policy of collective security by his elders in the British Cabinet at a time when it was clear that the League of Nations had already been discredited by those same elders, many of whom were already numbered among the "realists" of Europe. Sir Samuel Hoare and Monsieur Pierre Laval openly followed a policy of "realism" in the solution of the Abyssinian war by betrayal, and struck a discordant note in world opinion. This note was markedly stronger among the English-speaking peoples of the world. And Mr. Eden was brought in to demonstrate the concern which the British Cabinet of that time felt for the ideals of justice and freedom of nations.

The manipulations of Lord Lond-Russia, which would mean a world donderry and his associates, known war in itself, which no power on earth could localize.

Mr. Chamberlain probably him-created a situation not only in the self stands disillusioned after his Cabinet but also in the Foreign adventures into "realistic diplomacy" in which Mr. Eden found it macy. Diplomacy as a method of carrying out a fixed political career and the interest of aim of foreign policy can only the British people by continuing to be realistic. It is based on real strength. It is only when one assumes a sort of idealism in diplomacy, that one falls the victim of a "Talleyrand." Hitler's foreign policy follows the classic defined by Sir Edward Grey—avoid "racial hatred," or "racial purity," or of "divine will" to rule and subjugate free peoples.

The elder statesmen, the majority of whom know of war from their homes in an England that was only lightly touched by that affliction, deliberately cast Mr. Eden and his policies aside. Mr. Chamberlain was won over to the thesis and policy of the Cliveden clique and embarked upon a policy in the early part of this year which has begun to develop in a manner even worse than that foreseen by Mr. Eden.

At Munich, Great Britain was made to bow to superior force. And German hegemony in Europe has created a new situation in Europe which is already having serious repercussions throughout the world.

No less an authority than Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in 1914, stated an axiom which defines the aim of foreign policy in time of peace. He stated that "in time of peace foreign policy is directed firstly to avoid war, and, if unsuccessful, then, secondly, to have allies in the event of war."

Sir Edward in 1914 failed in his first objective. But Great Britain was able to enter the struggle against the Central Powers, with strong allies in France and Russia, without either of which countries Great Britain's plight would have been precarious.

In March of this year, Lord Lothian, a supporter of Mr. Chamberlain, stated that "by waiting too long, more might be lost than might be gained on the armaments side." By the strengthening of France in Spain, the position of France in the Mediterranean has been weakened. By the annexation of Austria, a democratic state has been erased from the map of Europe, while with the mutilation of Czechoslovakia the entire strategic situation of Great Britain has been altered.

"DRIVE TO THE EAST" It has been stated among political circles in Europe that the Chamberlain Government believes that Hitler will "drive to the East" and towards the Balkans and the Ukraine. But this is by no means certain since the "armaments side" is receiving its due attention. And there is plenty of easy prey "to the East" for Hitler to devour without attacking Soviet

Crucial Years Of Married Life

The crucial years of married life would appear to be from five to twenty years, according to the Civil Judicial statistics for Scotland, which reveal that there were 647 actions for divorce and separation decided by the Outer House of the Court of Session during 1937.

Of last year's actions, 330 were at the instance of the husbands and 317 brought by wives.

The crucial years of married life would appear to be from five to twenty years. One case was brought under one year of married life, eight between one and two years, 51 between two and five years, 220 between five and ten years, 277 between ten and twenty years, and 62 over twenty years. In eight cases the actions were dismissed. In 393 cases there were children, and in the remaining 255 cases no children.

COMPREHENSIVE TRADE PACT READY

London, Nov. 16

The Anglo-American trade agreement will, according to official quarters here, be the most comprehensive document of its kind ever concluded by the United States with a foreign power. About 100 categories of products are dealt with in the document.

The British delegates will give a farewell reception this evening. If the agreement is not signed by to-morrow as planned, it will be signed by the British Ambassador in Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay—Transocean.

REICH COLONIAL CLAIMS

WITH THE GOLD AND COPPER MARKETS JUMPING all over the place on account of reports—frequently conflicting—of the British and German Governments, colonial plans leaking through London, it is worth while making a study of the situation to date.

Germany is at the moment hoping that, at an early date, some "responsible" person on the British, or perhaps the South African side will let fall some "official" observation to the effect that, "after all," colonies should be discussed, and implying that Germany has "a claim." In these circumstances, the Reich Government is adopting a somewhat "tough" attitude to Mr. Neville Chamberlain, the Prime Minister, in the expectation that, in anxiety to produce for the benefit of the electorate something that looks like a further step in "appeasement," he will "make an offer"—which will then immediately be transformed into a "minimum" demand. Mr. Chamberlain has, however, given an assurance that Parliament will be kept informed of developments.

OFFER EXPECTED

has "a claim." In these circumstances, the Reich Government is adopting a somewhat "tough" attitude to Mr. Neville Chamberlain, the Prime Minister, in the expectation that, in anxiety to produce for the benefit of the electorate something that looks like a further step in "appeasement," he will "make an offer"—which will then immediately be transformed into a "minimum" demand. Mr. Chamberlain has, however, given an assurance that Parliament will be kept informed of developments.

DISCUSSIONS IN THE INNER CABINET elsewhere in the colonial question have followed two main lines: the idea of the actual cession of territory, and the idea of "joint exploitation" of mandated territories by means of Dr. Schacht's old scheme of "chartered companies."

One plan which finds considerable favour is described by its advocates as "an operation in two stages," namely: (1) The Portuguese move into South West Africa and the British into Angola while the Belgians move out of Belgian Congo into Cameroons and the French take over the Belgian Congo; and (2) The Germans move into Angola and into Belgian Congo. The result is that the Germans are kept out of South West Africa where they might start exploiting the "restricted," and thus ruin the Anglo-South African gold and diamond interests. The Portuguese, it is thought, would be "under control." On the other hand, the Germans get Angola.

THE GERMANS ARE ALSO KEPT OUT of Cameroons, since it has now been found that the Wanderers Lose To St. John's But Showed Good Promise

By "The Jinx"

Scores are not always fair indication of a match, and so it was in the "B" Division badminton tie between St. John's champions, and the newly-formed Wanderers team at the Cathedral Hall last night.

The champions won by 8-1, and there was nothing in the scores of the games to indicate a close struggle, yet the losers put up a much better show than appears on the face of it.

The main reason why the Wanderers, who were making their debut, lost so heavily was their inconsistency. In most of the earlier games they got off to fine starts but just could not hold their lead.

Liang Sal-wah was their steadiest player, J. S. Ho their most brilliant. T. J. Ong, of whom much had been expected, developed inexplicable and inescapable trouble with his shoes early on, and could not do himself justice. E. S. Ho was good off and on, but C. Y. Yung and S. L. Cheung, while giving of their best and putting over some occasional neat shots, were not up to standard.

St. John's, who were more experienced and combined better, were remarkably well-balanced, and if they keep up their form will be most difficult to beat.

The air raid alarm will consist of the following:—

The sounding of ships' sirens and of hooters in possession of private factories.

The brilliancy of all public and private electric lighting will be alternatively reduced and increased over the period of one minute.

An announcement immediately prior to the "blackout" will be made over the wireless.

The switching off of street lighting.

Sounding of railway whistles.

The firing of maroons from Police Stations in the New Territories.

The first phase will terminate with the switching on of street lighting which will remain alight for an interval of two minutes.

The time of the second phase will be two minutes after the expiration of phase one and will last twenty minutes.

The air raid alarm will be the temporary switching on and off of street lighting.

The switching on of street lighting will terminate phase two.

During phase two all other forms of transport should, where applicable, be drawn into the side of the road etc. when, all lights should be extinguished and every precaution taken to park vehicles etc. in a safe place so as to avoid the possibility of accidents.

All the "blackout" exercises will be considered as completed twenty minutes after the commencement of phase two, and will be indicated by the switching on of all street lighting when all private lighting may again be switched on and normal conditions resumed.

During the whole of exercise No. 2 (phases 1 and 2) all other forms of public and private lighting are to remain either extinguished or obscured.

The objects of the "precautionary period" are to enable all concerned to prepare the necessary plans to darken their premises, grounds and transport vehicles so that they will be ready at any time during the "air raid warning" period to carry their darkening plans into effect with the minimum of delay.

The object to attain is to darken your house or business premises, etc. so that no lights are visible external to the building. To screen the lights of all transport vehicles so as to make them invisible from the air.

Immediately the "air raid warning" is seen or heard:—

Turn out all unnecessary lights and remove the globes.

Obscure the remaining lights either:—

By covering the lights with two layers of a dark and thick cloth which should be allowed to hang down for a distance of two feet, the cloth being gathered together in the middle by a piece of string etc.

By inserting the globe (if electric light is used) in an empty fruit can or tin.

By using low-powered blue or black coloured globes.

By shading with curtains or heavy material all windows, skylights, glass doors or any exterior openings in parts of the house etc. where lights are likely to be used after dark.

Headlights of all transport vehicles should be turned out and all remaining lights covered with two thicknesses of blue material.

REMOVE GLOBES

It is very desirable to remove the globes of all electric lights which it is not proposed to use during the "blackout" so as to avoid the possibility of them being turned on by mistake.

The best place for shaded lights is in the corner of a room, as in this position the walls of the room generally help to obscure the light.

If electric torches are used the globes should be covered with at least two thicknesses of dark blue tissue paper or dark cloth and when in use should be so handled that the beam of light is thrown vertically downwards.

Should the head of the house be absent from home when the "air raid warning" is sounded, ensure that the whole of the family and the domestic staff are thoroughly conversant with:—

The different types of air raid warning signals which will be used, and

The general scheme of lighting restrictions which the head of the house proposes to put into force.

It is suggested in business establishments, hotels, theatres, cinemas, etc. that when the "air raid warning" is sounded the managers of such establishments will take the necessary action to inform those people who may be within the buildings.

It should be noted, that the private supplies of electricity and gas will not be discontinued or curtailed during the practice "blackout" and therefore responsibility for "darkening" will rest on every individual having under his control any form of lighting.

It is quite possible that in some isolated cases the "air raid warning" signals may neither be seen nor heard, but if a careful look-out is kept during the "warning period" to see if the street lighting has been extinguished or neighbouring houses are in darkness, it should be assumed that the alarm has been sounded, and therefore immediate action should be taken to darken premises.

CONCLUSIONS FROM LAST "BLACKOUT"

The darkening of houses by using red material is not effective and dark blue material should be used instead.

Many motor vehicles both in Hongkong, Kowloon and the New Territories failed to observe the lighting restrictions and it was also observed that certain types of motor cars, especially V8 models have licence plates painted upwards; these should be shielded and special attention should be paid to the rear lights and rear brake lights which reflect onto the number plates and onto the ground.

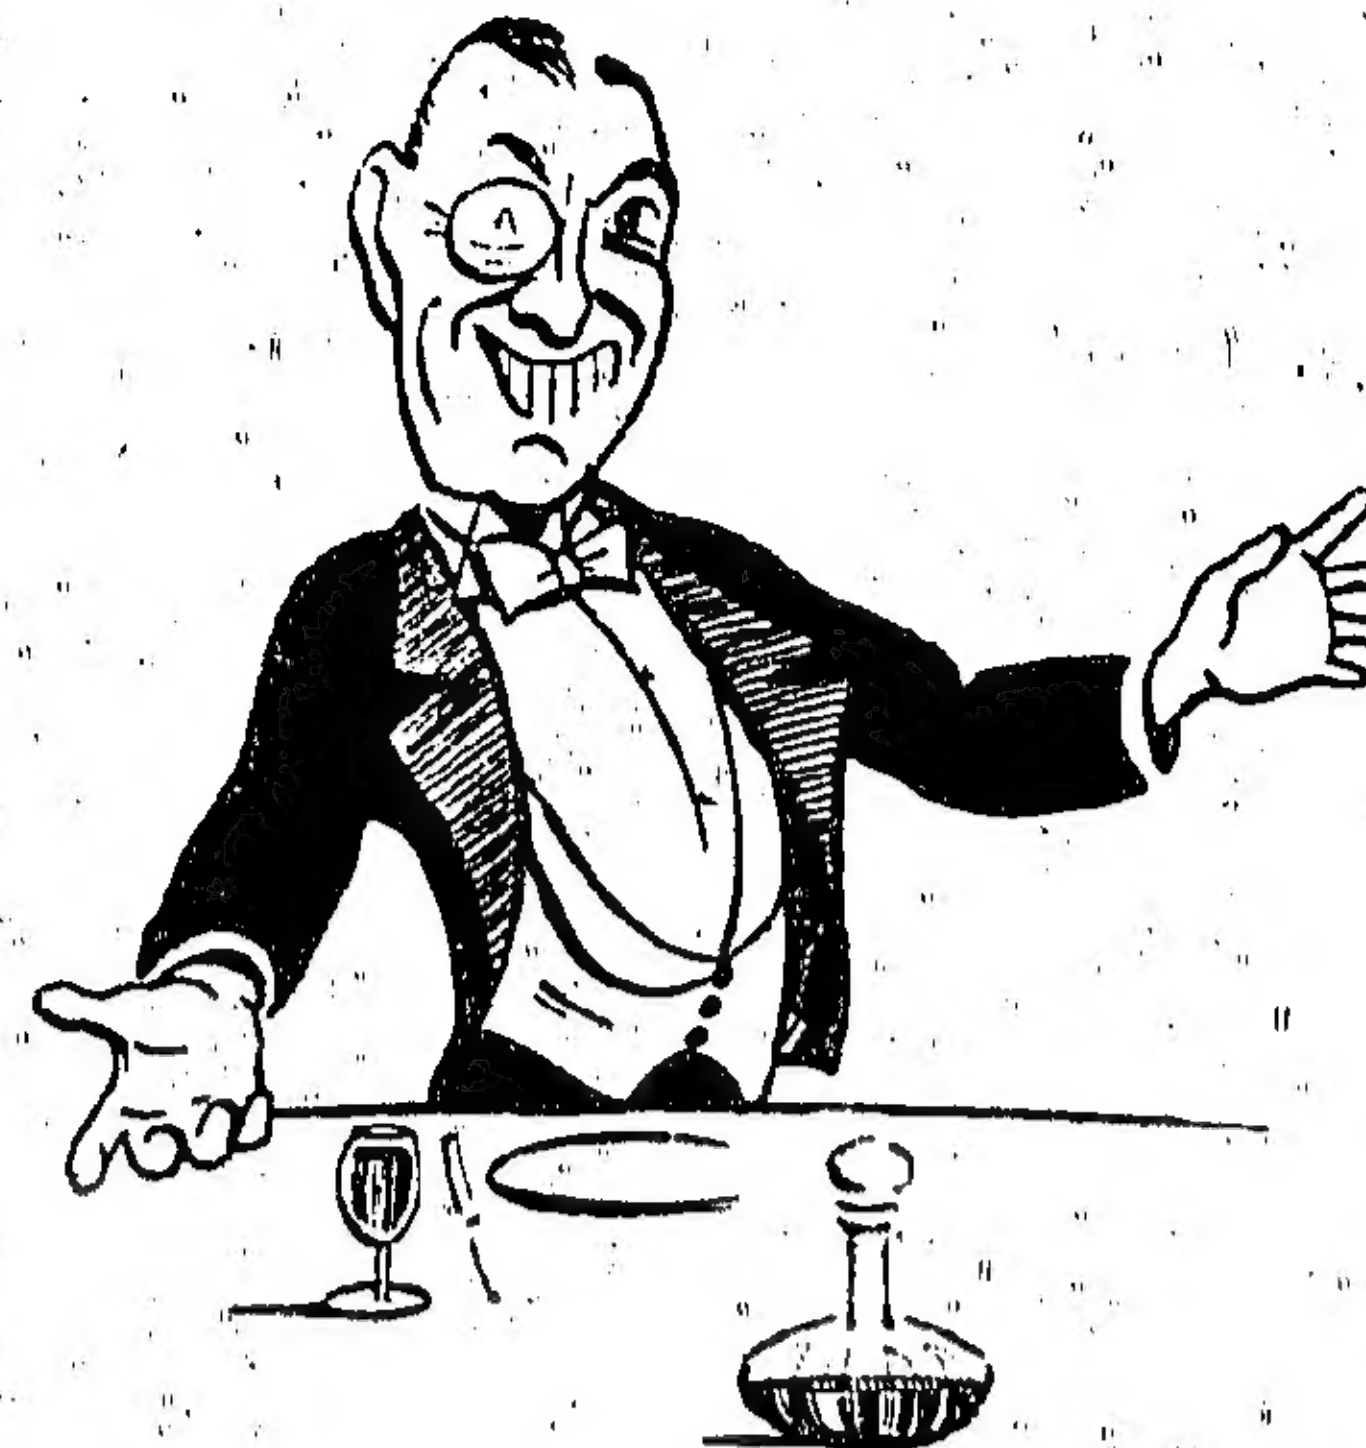

Bicycle and rickshaw lights must be screened by dark blue material.

Several lights were visible on tops of buildings and owners of premises with any skylights should cover these apertures with curtains or paint the glass surface with blue paint.

The public should keep indoors and not crowd into the streets as the latter must be kept free for the movement of essential services, e.g. Fire Brigade.

Masses of people in white clothing are discernible from the air, and therefore dark clothing should be worn by those members of the public whose duty takes them into the streets.

CHANGSHA REGARDED AS UNSAFE Owing To Falling Masonry

Hankow, Nov. 16. Chinese troops who during the past few days have been behaving in a disorderly manner in Changsha appear to be fully disciplined now and all foreigners are safe according to a foreign report from that place. Contrary to rumours the Governor is still in Changsha and is doing all in his power to restore peace and order.

Almost the entire city has been destroyed with the exception of a small area in the south-east part.

Changsha is regarded as unsafe owing to falling masonry.

The Yee Tsong Tobacco Company, Butterfield and Swire's building, and the Chinese Maritime Customs property on the mainland are intact despite the recent raking inferno but other commercial premises are destroyed.

Mission properties, although affected by the fire, are still standing. The situation at Yale University is somewhat doubtful and the evacuation of foreigners from there to the oil installations is being considered, but hitherto no steps have been taken.—Reuter.

U.S. SUGAR QUOTA NEARLY FILLED

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reported at the end of last week that off-shore and foreign sugar-producing countries delivered to the United States a total of 4,405,709 short tons of sugar during the first 10 months of 1938, as compared to the year's quota of 4,597,287 short tons.

The Department said 169,726 tons has been charged against the quota of United States continental cane areas while 908,779 short tons has been charged against the quota of U. S. continental beet areas during the same 10-month period.

During the first 10 months of the year, Cuba delivered 1,884,377 short tons; the Philippines, 923,230; Puerto Rico, 203,905; Hawaii, 749,078; the Virgin Islands, 3,923; and all other foreign countries, 44,196.

MOTOR INDUSTRY ADAPTED FOR DEFENCE

Several motor factories have stopped deliveries of passenger cars or commercial vans to the public pending a Government inquiry into the immediate demands of national defence, writes a Home correspondent.

Two factories of Morris have gone over to immediate production of aeroplanes for the R.A.F. Sale of motor cars will continue without interruption from stock at distributors, but new production will be subject to national demands.

Two units belonging to the Rootes group are holding up deliveries. As a result, American car manufacturers are arranging for increased supplies to Britain.

Is Order To Pay Fine On Sanitary Summons A Conviction?

APPEAL BROUGHT BY MANAGER OF BANK OF EAST ASIA

During the hearing of an appeal before Mr. Justice R. E. Lind-sell, Acting Chief Justice, at the Supreme Court yesterday, the question arose as to whether or not an order to pay a fine could, on a Sanitary summons, be called a conviction.

Appellant in the case was Mr. Li Tse-tong, Manager of the Bank of East Asia Ltd., who appealed against a conviction imposed by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett, the Kowloon Magistrate, when he was fined $15 for failure to comply with a notice sent him by the Urban Council, requesting him to remove accumulated stagnant water in the roof gutters of No. 24 Somerset Road, Kowloon Tong. The summons had been taken out by Sanitary Inspector Kam Nai-fai who was named as respondent in the appeal.

Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. M. W. Lo, represented the appellant.

Mr. Macnamara said that sometime in May last his client received a notice from the Urban Council requesting him to repair certain defects in his house in Somerset Road within seven days. His client immediately took steps to have the repairs effected but unfortunately, owing to some delay, particularly rain, the repairs were not completed till after nine days had elapsed.

Counsel submitted that in the notice there was no mention that a summons would be taken out if the repairs were not effected within the stipulated time. The only thing that the notice mentioned was that action would be taken if the nuisance were allowed to continue unabated.

NO INTIMATION

Counsel continued that his client had immediately, upon receiving the notice, taken steps to effect repairs but for the simple reason that the repairs were completed two days beyond the time allowed, a summons was taken out. Counsel submitted that there was no intimation that non-compliance within seven days was a statutory offence and therefore the Magistrate, in deciding to convict was doing so to a person for an offence which was not mentioned in the Ordinance at all.

His Lordship remarked that there must be a time limit to such notices sent out, whereupon counsel submitted that, in this particular case, there could be no time limit. The Magistrate said counsel, even at the time he was adjudicating the case, had to find that the nuisance was then still continuing before he could convict. Counsel went on to say that his client was summoned not because he failed to comply with the notice but because he failed to carry out the instructions within seven days.

GUERRILLAS RESUME ACTIVITIES

Tientsin, Nov. 16. Guerrilla units of the 8th Route Army have resumed their activities in Chahar and Suiyuan provinces in the vicinity of the Peiping-Suiyuan Railway. The guerrillas are taking advantage of the mountainous regions.

Japanese troops are being worn down by guerrilla warfare in several skirmishes. The situation is so serious that General Hatachi Terachi, Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese forces in North China, paid a flying visit to Kalgan yesterday. He inspected the conditions there and returned to Peiping in the afternoon.—International.

There was no offence under the Statute for failing to comply within the time limit and, therefore, the conviction in this case was for an offence not in the Ordinance.

The Statute was against the allowing of a nuisance to continue, and not against the time, and the Magistrate, therefore, in imposing as he did, that there was an offence against time, was wrong. His Lordship reserved his decision.

Japanese Attack On Suining Repulsed

Hwaiyin, November 12 (delayed). Following brief occupation by Japanese forces on November 8, Suining, important north Kiangnan town on the Anhwei border, has again been cleared of Japanese troops after spirited Chinese counter-attacks.

The Japanese invaders, driven from Suining and retreating to Tachwang in north Anhwei, were further reduced in number by Chinese guerrilla attacks and retreated in disorder towards the west.

Considerable quantities of ammunition were left in Suining by the Japanese troops when they fled the town. An inventory is being compiled for the war spoils. The Magistrate of Suining, Mr. Liu Tien-chun, has re-entered the town at the head of his staff. Rehabilitation measures are being taken to restore the place to normalcy.—Central News.

Tommy Chan Proves Worthy Successor To Chinn

(BY R.O.Y.)

THREE IMPORTANT LEAGUE GAMES were decided last Sunday, when the Trojans retained their unbeaten record to stay at the top of the League table. The Chinese Baseball Club, who have played two games less, also without defeat, moved up into second place by virtue of their convincing win over the English Forum.

The Colony's lady enthusiasts staged an extensive programme of practice matches over the week-end, in preparation for the commencement of their League series, scheduled for December 4. Main feature of these games, was the heavy hitting of the Recoil Ladies who scored 38 and 35 runs, against the "Baby Panthers" and the Central British Ladies, respectively.

The last mentioned squad, in a season, when they were outthit by subsequent game, gave a much improved display to hold the Chinese Wildcats to a tie at 10 runs all. The Diocesan Girls, now named the "Cubs", were unlucky to lose two close games to the Filipino Girls, 18 runs to 14, and to the "Cardinals" by 8 runs to 5.

TRAJANS: 6 M.K. BASEBALL CLUB: 5

The Baseballers, fielding a depleted team, lost another heart-breaker to the Trojans, who staged a last minute rally to score the tying and winning runs in the final stanza of the closest game of the day. The winners showed the benefit of assiduous practice and fully deserved their fine win.

Best players were H. Silva, Aquino, T. Silva and Silva-Netto. Enrie Hearnher, Waggoner and Venezia were outstanding for the Baseballers who have lost three of their four unsuccessful outings, by the odd run margin.

The English Forum squad sustained their first defeat of the season.

SECOND WIN FOR M.C.C.

Splendid Bowling By Farnes

Cape Town, Nov. 15. The M.C.C. cricketers won the second match of their South African tour, beating Western Province by eight wickets.

In reply to their opponents' first innings total of 174, the tourists scored 278, of which Hugh Bartlett, the Sussex left-hander, made 91 not out. He played a vigorous innings lasting 120 minutes and hit nine boundaries.

Going in again, Western Province were dismissed for 169. Against the fast swinging deliveries of Kenneth Farnes, the Sussex and England bowler, only A. R. Ralph was able to play with confidence; he batted attractively and was not out at the finish.

Farnes returned the splendid bowling figures of

HARLEQUINS HELD AT HOME

But Score Only Try Of Game

Harlequins 3 pts. London Scottish 3

That the Harlequins were not beaten at Twickenham recently was largely due to the fine tackling of their forwards and the lack of finish on the part of the opposing outsiders. Oddly enough, the Harlequins, on the defensive for most of the time, scored a try, while the only success of the attacking Scots was a penalty goal.

The try was a real beauty. Following a breakaway by Bishop the ball came out to Horsley from some scrummaging mauling play in the Scottish "25." With what looked like three gigantic strides, Bishop dashed forward and crashed past Stuart-Wilson. Chapman failed with the kick and that brought the half-time.

The three opening minutes of the second half were grand stuff with Fyfe going all out for the line and only just kept out by the united efforts of three defenders who shoved him violently into touch. A minute later he kicked a penalty goal from a good way out, the ball playing the queerest fighting tricks before it swerved inwards between the posts.

SMART PAIR OF HALVES
The Scottish halves, Adair and he base of the scrum and "trathie," were an effective combination. Adair may be a little bit slow but he does a thoroughly sound job of work. He gets the ball away without delay, chooses the time for his occasional creep-away sagaciously, and his powerful kicking is worth a good deal to the side in defence.

Strathie knows a lot about the game for one aged 19, and with an Oxford career before him, but he has plenty to learn. He is physically sound, but he is not so well played during the long season ahead of him.

Some of his running in this game was cleverly judged and interesting to watch. His centres did not follow him particularly well though, and he confused them once or twice by dropping the ball.

SCRAPPY QUINS SIDE
The Harlequins were rather a scratch side owing to the crisis, but even so, there is some doubt as to who are to fill the centre positions. Bishop at stand-off, gave Golding plenty of support and Strathie quite a lot to think about. The whole three-quarter line defended well, but rarely made much ground. Bishop being the only true penetrative mid-field player.

But the real weakness lay forward, where the healing was slow, and often failed altogether. It was a fairly representative pack, too.

In the line-outs and in the loose the Harlequins forwards were as good as the Scottish, and some of their handling was as good as anything in the game. Chapman, Mythen and Thompson were seen quite a lot of, and Birkett, son of a famous father, worked solidly, winning mixers generally were.

LOCAL CRICKET

C.B.R. Sargent's XI Beat D.B.S.

In a cricket match at the Diocesan Boys' School yesterday, the Rev. C. B. R. Sargent's team defeated the School by 58 runs.

Scores:—
Mr. Sargent's XI—138 (D. Cray, five for 62, and S. K. Cheung, five for 62).

Diocesan Boys' School—82 (F. J. Lay 21, D. Cray 22, S. K. Cheung 20, H. Owen Hughes, five for 30, and C. B. R. Sargent, four for 28).

LA SALLE WIN
At the Club de Recreo, La Salle College were the winners by six wickets against the Royal Army Medical Corps.

The R.A.M.C. batted first and were skittled out for 34 runs by A. el Arculli (five for 17) and G. Gosano (five for 17).

La Salle fared slightly better, compiling 48 runs, of which G. Gosano scored 23. For the R.A.M.C., Webb took four wickets for 18 and Dunne three for 8.

The ball as he was about to pass—and just how good he was it was a little difficult to make out.

Fyfe did what he could with all his old dash. Not a great deal came his way, but as far as one could judge he has lost little of the no great pace which was made up for by the determination, which always possessed him on the field.

AMERICA AND WAR IN CHINA

When Japan Borrows

Speaking at York recently Sir
Frederick Whyte, director of the English-speaking Union, discussed the American reaction to the Munich treaty and the future relations of the United States and Great Britain in regard to international relations, and particularly the European situation.

America could not afford to pass by on the other side, he said. It was a process of conversion which would take a long time, but he did not think that we could criticise Americans for being slow about it.

Replying to questions about
America's attitude to the Sino-
Japanese war, he said America had always taken a more active interest in the Far East and the Pacific than in Europe, and was more inclined to go in and take responsibility.

There was a very strong pro-Chinese sentiment, but even so he did not think
America would go to war.

There were indications that the end of the war might be approaching.
One could not say it would be over by the end of the year, but combined action by England and America might bring about a real settlement between China and Japan.

Japan would need to borrow from somebody, and she would be bound to come to England and America, for she could not borrow from anybody else. He hoped that before that time came England and America would have realised that the possession of money meant holding the whip hand in the Far East.

If they were going to lend money they must not leave it to the bankers and financial houses to settle the terms, but they must lay down certain minimum political and moral obligations which must be recognised by the Japanese Government before either America or England would lend Japan a penny.

It is understood he had two stitches to the cut.

CLOSE WIN FOR CLUB

GOSPEL HALL LECTURE

Dr. French Oliver, an American missionary recently arrived in the Colony, delivered the third of the series of lectures he has been giving at the Gospel Hall, Duddell Street, last night.

His subject on this occasion was "Does Death End All?" and he dealt with it from all angles as he saw it, touching upon the possibilities of eternal life and detailing different viewpoints.

There was a fair attendance to hear Dr. Oliver's interesting talk.

SHIPS IN HARBOUR

The following British warships were in harbour yesterday:—Dorsetshire and Birmingham (cruisers), Duncan, Diana, Westcott, Delight, Duchess, Diamond and Dainty (destroyers), Midway (submarine depot ship), and part of the 4th submarine flotilla.

MORAL REARMAMENT THROUGH SPORT

Appeal For Promotion Of Good Will

The following statement calling for moral rearmament through sport has been issued by a number of leading British sportsmen:—
Lord Baldwin and his co-signatories in a widely read letter have proclaimed their belief in the need for moral and spiritual rearmament. We, the undersigned, representing sport in various forms, feel impelled to take up that call to awaken to their responsibility individuals and nations alike, so that the spirit of national service may no longer be evoked only when war seems imminent, but may ever be active in the cause of good will, mutual understanding, and peace. In this we believe that sport, which lies close to every British heart, has a leading part to play.

High standards of sportsmanship, fair play, and clean living have a great share in the building of character and have, through sportsmen governed by these principles, been carried into the national life. They require to be carried deeper to remove dissatisfactions and the spirit of unrest, and to restore to the country faith in its high mission and purpose.

We believe it to be the task of sportsmen to assert the principles of sport—fitness, discipline, and team-work—so that they may become dominant in the life of the nation.

KING'S SPEECH

His Majesty the King, speaking at Guildhall on February 17 this year, said: "We must remember, too, that in the end fitness depends on the efforts of each one of us."
This is an essential truth. Moral rearmament, which is the true basis of national fitness, is an individual responsibility. Individual sportsmen, morally fit themselves, can influence the whole sporting world, and the sporting world, in turn, the life of the whole country.
This will mean that fear, bitterness, jealousy, and self-indulgence, forces which make for national unfitness—will disappear, and out of our present apathy a new desire for national fitness will spring to life.

Nor is this all. Sportsmen morally rearm will have an influence reaching far beyond their nation's boundaries. On the natural meeting grounds that sport provides they can create between all peoples, irrespective of class or creed or nationality, bonds of an unbreakable spiritual quality. It is because sportsmen know the meaning of the discipline and sacrifice which sport demands that it is up to them to give the lead in the discipline and sacrifice needed to-day for the restoration to Britain of her true greatness; and for the creation of a new chivalry and a new spirit of usefulness among the peoples of the world.

SIGNATORIES

The statement is signed by:—
H. M. Abrahams, Captain, British Athletic Team, Olympic Games, 1928; George Allison, Manager, Arsenal F.C.; Sir Charles Allom, Yachtsman, President of the Boat Racing Assoc.; H. W. Austin, British Davis Cup Team, 1929-37; Record for One Mile.

CABIN BOY ESCAPES SUPREME PENALTY

Customs Cruiser Murder Sentence Commuted

Recalling the famous Chinese Customs cruiser case, in which Chung Chi-cheung, cabin boy, was sentenced to hang for the murder of his skipper, Captain Douglas Lorne Campbell, it was announced yesterday that the death penalty had been commuted to one of life imprisonment by His Excellency the Governor.

An appeal in this case has been carried to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, the highest possible authority, but this decision of the Governor of Hong Kong is irrevocable of its result.

It will be remembered that on which were issued to barristers and January 11, 1937, Captain Campbell—relative to a disabled was found shot dead on board the customs cruiser Cheung Keng, of which the early stages of the trial he was commander. Chung was stream of Chinese had gone into lying nearby, badly wounded, with a revolver in each hand.

He was arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced to death. He did not attempt to deny the act, but pleaded that at the time he lost his senses and did not know what he was doing.
Chung's appeal to the Privy Council, the result of which has not yet been received in Hong Kong, was based on purely technical questions, such as an objection that the "Supreme Court of Hong Kong has never had any Common Law jurisdiction over armed public that the "Supreme Court of Hong Kong waters or over the crew of such vessels."

NATIONALITY AT ISSUE

These objections—there were 14 of them—listed in the bound volume of documents of the trial, the eleventh moon (he could not deny).
